"WE AS ONE"

When the I in me
Became the us and we
In my heart of hearts
You found the key

From day to day
Come what may
Your love for me is true
That's why I believe in you

There's no limit to where we can go
Or what we can do
When we keep
What we have forever fresh and new

The now and forever of a heart tried and true
Will stand the test of time
For the love of me and you

For we as one
